

IN THE COUNTY

MALTA BEND

Sunday morning, Thos. Malta+his son to his spring wagon, and he with four of his children started to Salt Springs to spend the day with friends. After crossing White Ridge, one of the horses lung back and was given a light tap with the whip which caused the animal to jump, breaking the doubletree; this caused the tongue to slip out of the neck socket; the horses became frightened and started to run the tongue turning to one side and running into a bank, throwing the wagon over and piling the occupants in an unarranged mass. Mr. Malta received a very painful injury, on the left leg and one of the girls had her face badly scratched and bruised, while the others escaped uninjured.

S. N. Mahan started out Tuesday on an extended visit to various friends at various places. He is rapidly gaining strength and looks after his long spell of sickness.

Children's day was observed at the St. E. Church last Sunday at 11 A. M. The church was well filled and the program was the best we have ever had.

A team belonging to S. T. Wilson, became frightened at the train Monday, broke loose and ran away. No one was hurt, but the wagon was badly wrecked.
